Whitehall, June 7.

On the 19th of May the Genetal Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and choſe for their Moderator the Rev. Mr. William Leechman. His Majeſty's Commiſſion to the Right Hon. Charles Lord Cathcart was read, as was likewiſe His Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter to the Aſſembly. His Majeſty's Commiſſioner made a Speech to the Aſſembly, which was anſwered on their Part by the Moderator; and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Anſwer to His Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter, which being reported, was unanimouſly approved; and having been tranſmitted by the High Commiſſioner to the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſſe, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive it very graciouſly. It is as follows.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE moſt gracious Letter, with which your Majeſty has honoured this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, we received with that Reſpect and Thankfulneſs, which Subjects, happy under the beſt of Governments, owe to the beſt of Sovereigns.

The favourable Sentiments which your Majeſty is pleas'd to expreſs of the Loyalty of former Aſſemblies, and of their Zeal for the Advancement of true Religion and Piety, give us the moſt ſenſible Pleaſure, and inſpire us with new Ardor, to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to preſerve the good Opinion your Majeſty has conceived of us. We eſteem it our peculiar Happineſs, that theſe our Principles and Diſpoſitions, which, as Men, as Chriſtians, and as Britons, we ought ever to cultivate, are the ſureſt Means of ſecuring your Royal Favour.

Your Majeſty's countenancing our preſent Meeting with your Royal Approbation and Authority, is a freſh Proof of your pious Concern for the Intereſts of true Religion, and of your ſincere Regard for the Proſperity of this National Church.

We have an intire Reliance upon your Majeſty's Aſſurances of your conſtant Reſolution to ſupport and maintain the Church of Scotland, as by Law eſtabliſhed, in the full Enjoyment of all its juſt Rights and Privileges; theſe Aſſurances are the moſt ſatisfying Proofs of your Majeſty's conſtant Regard for the Rights of your Subjects, and lay us under peculiar Obligations to exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt, in Defence of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and in Support of that Conſtitution and Government, under which we enjoy ſo many ineſtimable Bleſſings.

We hope your Majeſty will, upon all Occaſions, have Reaſon to judge, that our Conduct is directed by the Principles of true Piety, and affectionate Loyalty; and we beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, in our ſeveral Stations, we ſhall make it our Care to promote the ſame pious and loyal Principles, where ever our Influence can reach.

The Choice your Majeſty has been pleaſed to make of the Lord Cathcart, to repreſent your Royal Perſon in this Aſſembly, gives intire Satisfaction to us, and every Member of the Church of Scotland. The Proofs your Majeſty has had of his Lordſhip's Abilities, Attention, and Faithfulneſs, in former Services and Employments, and the ſincere Regard he has always ſhewen for true Religion, and for the Rights and Intereſts of this Church, render the Choice of him moſt acceptable to us, and to all true Friends of our happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State.

Your Majeſty's Renewal of your Royal Bounty, for the reforming thoſe Parts of our Country which yet remain in a great Meaſure ignorant and uncivilized, we acknowledge with all Thankfulneſs, as a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's pious Concern for the true Happineſs of all your Subjects, and we ſhall, to the beſt of our Judgment, employ it in ſuch a Manner as may moſt effectually ſerve the important Purpoſes of ſo pious and charitable a Donation.

As the great Intent of our preſent aſſembling is to promote true Piety and Virtue, we can aſſure your Majeſty, that, aiming above all Things to approve ourſelves to Almighty God, and to juſtify the Truſt and Confidence your Majeſty is pleaſed to repoſe in us, nothing ſhall be wanting on our Part to contribute to an End, in all Reſpects, ſo good and deſirable.

That the God of all Grace, through our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, may pour down his choiceſt Bleſſings upon your Majeſty; that your precious Life may be long preſerved for a Bleſſing to theſe Realms; that the Divine Wiſdom may direct your Council; and that, under the Protection of Almighty Providence, your Fleets and Armies may be Victorious; that God may abundantly bleſs their Royal Highneſſes, George Prince of Wales, the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, the Duke, the Princeſſes, and all the Branches of your Royal Family; that, after a long and happy Reign upon Earth, you may be exalted into the Heavenly Kingdom; and that a Race of Kings of your Royal Line, Guardians of Religion, Liberty and their Country, may always ſway the Scepter over theſe Lands, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt faithful, and moſt obedient Subjects,
